III. Serving One Another - Philippians 2:3-4

Paul Tripp: 'The character and quality of our life is forged in little moments. Every day we lay little bricks on the foundation of what our life will be. The bricks of words said, the bricks of actions taken, the bricks of little decisions, the bricks of little thoughts, and the bricks of small moment desires all work together to form the functional edifice that is your marriage. So, you have to view yourself as a marital mason. You are daily on the job adding another layer of bricks that will determine the shape of your marriage for days, weeks, and years to come.'

Please grab a flier and paper bag, and bring it back with non-perishable food items by Sunday, February 22.
